

BOSTON HERALD.COM

Transactions

Monday, February 1, 2010 | <http://www.bostonherald.com> | Women's Business News

Howard/Stein-Hudson Associates has launched a field office in Topsfield to provide more easily engineering and planning services to its growing base of public and private sector clients across Boston's North Shore, southern New Hampshire and southern Maine regions.

Leslie Saul & Associates has completed new offices for Charity Partners Inc.

Ewa Deveney has celebrated the first anniversary of her Studio 123, a European skin care and hair salon in Norwell.

Newbury Piret, Boston, served as exclusive financial advisor to Boston Rack and Base Manufacturing in their merger to form Elite Storage Solutions.

Cindy Rice-Andrea has launched the book series, "Green Apple Tales," aimed at educating parents and their children ages 3 to 10 on the topic of food safety. She is the founder of Eastern Mass Food Safety, a leader in ServSafe training as well as food manager certification and consultation.

Seidler Bernstein, Cambridge, has raised awareness of the importance and contributions of women scientists through its pro bono campaign, "Julia."

Columbia Sportswear, Sorel, Montrail, Mountain Hardwear, Polartec and Primaloft all chose Hill & Partners, Quincy, to support their brand at the Outdoor Retailer Show in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Boston-area designer Barbara Jacobs, owner and designer for her line of custom heirloom-quality artisan Tibetan rugs Silk Road Weaves, has affiliated with the new international design resource, www.sampleboardonline.com.

Article URL: <http://www.bostonherald.com/business/womens/general/view.bg?articleid=1227059>